

Let's go golfing! The best courses in Austria

Enjoyed the Wooden Spoon and want more? Have a look at what Austria has to offer to golf enthusiasts!

Austria is a skiing nation, no doubt, but golf is a big thing, too. And Franz Klammer is by no means the only well-known name regularly spotted on the grass. Home to some of the most beautiful golf courses in the world, Austria attracts beginners and pros alike, completing their holes in beautiful settings, stunning mountain and lake views included.

Franz Klammer's home Carinthia and Tirol are especially well-known for their courses. Got inspired by the Wooden Spoon? Have a look at what the regions have to offer!

Carinthia: 12 golf clubs and the Alpe-Adria-Golf Card

Austria's southernmost province is known for its lakes, its skiing, cycling and biking resorts. But it also has a whopping 12 golf courses, with its natural surroundings making them even more appealing. In the summer, you are never far from the next bathing lake to cool off before or after a game. In spring, you can sometimes even ski and golf on one day.

Another bonus: The cross-border Alpe-Adria-Golf Card gives access to 20 of the most beautiful courses in Carinthia, Italy, and Slovenia, allowing golfers to explore three different countries in one holiday, all while mastering their skills. It's even possible to play a round in all three countries in just one day!

Tirol: More than 20 golf courses and one golden ticket

Tirol has more than 20 golf clubs, 19 of which are Golf Tirol partner clubs, meaning you can use all of them with one golden ticket, the Golf Tirol Card. The courses are located in some of the country's most beautiful regions and offer challenging and varied parcours with impeccable fairways and spectacular mountain views.

Thanks to a great selection of clubs both in the valley and in the mountains, golfers of every skill level are ensured a memorable and exciting game in Tirol, from the Zugspitze Mountain to the Lienzer Dolomites, from the Kitzbühler Alps to Seefeld.
