Mountain adventures in Zillertal

Spieljoch children's play paradise

A great variety of family fun awaits you at Spieljoch Adventure Mountain. An adventure pond invites children to splash around and go pedal boating. The summit barefoot hiking trail and balance course challenge and strengthen their skills. In the Kristallpark there are playful insights into working in mines as well as a guaranteed crystal find, and the Flying Fox provides an adrenaline rush against a breathtaking mountain backdrop. Monster scooters, mountain carts and much more are also waiting to be tried out.

Rosenalm adventure world in Zell

Magical Fichtenschloss castle towers high above the Rosenalmbahn cable car top station in the Zillertal Arena. Spruce gnomes invite all ages to enjoy climbing, sliding and 'working' here. Hammocks and loungers provide a place to unwind. And anyone who is longing to cool off, can follow the path suitable for prams to lake Fichtensee with its shallow water area, floating jetty, floating island, stand-up paddle and boat hire.

Gerlosstein adventure mountain

The motto on the Gerlosstein is: Back to the source. The Almpromenade leads families through fantastic nature with interesting stations along the trail all the way to the Zillertaler Almtribüne with breathtaking views. The petting zoo and alpine playground will get children's pulses racing, and anyone who wants more action can whizz over terrain at up to 50 km/h on the Almflieger, a Flying Fox with five stations.

Gipfelwelt Königsleiten

An exciting nature playground for the whole family is on offer at the Dorfbahn Königsleiten cable car top station. Lake Kröndlwormsee with its unique mythical experience, the wooden marble run and sprinkling water games provide endless fun for all ages. And for anyone who wants to experience the lake from a bird's eye view there's the GipfelLiner, a zip line running across the reservoir.

Latschenland play paradise

At the Isskogel top station in Gerlos you will find the Latschenland play paradise, a vast adventure area surrounded by play equipment and adventure stations. An animal enclosure awaits you in the heart of the Latschenalm, and charming lake Latschensee is just outside. Various paths lead through the entire area and promise an exciting journey of discovery for all ages.

Unique moments of pleasure up Mount Ahorn

Mountopolis, the Mayrhofner Bergbahnen adventure world, shows how hiking can be fun for every child on Mount Ahorn: the enjoyable circular trail with four viewing platforms, which is suitable for prams, is transformed into an interactive radio play adventure called "Der Wilderer vom Ahorn" (The poacher from Mount Ahorn) using the Locandy app. Lake AhornSee and AhornBachl stream invite you to rest, play and while away the hours. Animal lovers should definitely visit the bird of prey show at the Eagle's Stage Ahorn and the FalknerOase at the reservoir.

Guaranteed adrenalin rush on Mount Penken

Mount Penken is also part of Mountopolis. There are plenty of offers for action lovers here: the FunSportStation with MountainScooters, motor skills and e-trial courses provide exciting experiences. And a climbing tower, slides and a water playground await children at the Mountain PlayGround, as well as Virginia's Tree House, a story about the mascot AlbertAdler.

The children's area at Finkenberger Almbahnen cable cars

The wooden Penken Pepi is a full eight metres high and can be played on three levels with a crawling tube, slide, distorting mirror and more. Fun and challenges are also waiting outside the bear in the swinging paradise and climbing park. Children and the young at heart can discover their climbing skills on 30 different elements in various levels of difficulty.

Eggalm family paradise

The Eggalm alpine playground will amaze and excite even the smallest hikers. The top station is the starting point for many hiking trails with educational and thrilling play stations. And at the large pond, there's not just a Kneipp facility and a tugboat. The really brave dare to cross the pond on the nine-metre long slackline.

Glacier adventure world

Anyone wanting to go even higher can look forward to a cooling glacier experience at 3,250 metres altitude on the Hintertux Glacier. Here you will also find Luis' Glacier Flea Park, Europe's highest adventure playground. And in Nature's Ice Palace, a naturally grown crevasse, the whole family will be enchanted by the magical world of eternal ice. Incidentally, the underground glacial lake can be navigated by kayak and boat. The really brave also try their hand at ice swimming. And the Spannagel show cave fascinates with numerous subterranean natural wonders.

Summer activities in Zillertal

Hiking with kids

The family-friendly hiking trails in Zillertal offer fun and excitement for all ages. Adventure playgrounds, alpine streams and springs along the way, turn nature into a playground: water swings, MountainScooters, Flying Fox or fun pony rides and marmot encounters – in Zillertal the whole family is whisked away into a world of joy and wonder.

Theme trails

More than 30 theme trails in Zillertal ensure fun, games and exercise outdoors. Beautifully designed interactive stations introduce all ages to the Alpine habitat and its numerous inhabitants in an exciting way. As a result, the six TUX Worlds allow their visitors to experience and explore the alpine pastures, moors, eternal ice and more up close and with all their senses. Actively experiencing nature, that's the motto of the TUX-Worlds and many other theme trails in Zillertal, such as the Vogellehrpfad, the Jodelwanderweg and the Wildtierpfad.

Biking with kids: Zillertal Cycle Trail

Zillertal offers over 100 km of varied cycle paths for families. One special highlight is the "Zillertal Cycle Trail" from Strass to Mayrhofen: the route leads between fragrant meadows, continuously along the river, to fun, games and enjoyment. Past the swimming lake in Schlitters, mini-golf and adventure playgrounds, it offers numerous opportunities for exciting stops and happy moments as a family. If the little ones are exhausted at the end of the trail, the Zillertalbahn will take the whole family back to the starting point in comfort. With their bikes, of course.

Action and adventure for the whole family

Anyone who loves the blue element should definitely try rafting and canyoning. Rafting combines sporting activity, team spirit and outdoor experiences. Thundering waterfalls, washed-out rocks, crystal clear water and natural whirlpools are explored while canyoning. And to view Zillertal from above, experienced tandem pilots are ready to glide down into the valley from the most beautiful launch sites in the Zillertal Alps.

Water and fun in Zillertal

Numerous water destinations offer cool refreshment on sunny days. The crystal clear adventure and mountain lakes in Zillertal make eyes light up and guarantee special moments of happiness on holiday. The six outdoor swimming pools with their jet streams, water slides, bubbles, splash showers and much more will put a smile on your children's faces. The five reservoirs in the side valleys are popular excursion destinations and offer numerous activities for families. The Schlegeis reservoir is particularly popular with the fun and action on offer at Schlegeis 131: the huge dam wall can be explored by via ferrata or flown over by Flying Fox. Adrenaline junkies love the 30-metre deep free fall that can be experienced on the Giant Swing.

About Zillertal

Valley of peaks over three thousand metres, eternal ice, culinary highlights and music. Perfectly groomed slopes, fantastic cross-country skiing trails and toboggan runs in winter, hundreds of kilometres of hiking and biking trails as well as refreshing outdoor pools and idyllic mountain lakes with crystal-clear water in summer – surrounded by unique mountain panoramas: you can only experience this here. Zillertal stretches out along the Ziller for 47 km from the Hochfeiler, the highest mountain in Zillertal at 3,509 metres. You can experience the famous Zillertal hospitality from the more than 35,000 inhabitants for yourself in Zillertal's 25 municipalities. Well-being, regionality and indulgence are top priorities in summer and winter. Whether it's unique mountain experiences or simply enjoying nature, there are as many possibilities in the most active and musical valley in the world as there are needles in the pine forest. In addition, there is maximum indulgence: from regional culinary delights, genuine Zillertal home cooking and exquisite gourmet menus. Welcome to Zillertal – you can only feel it here.
