

KitzSkiWelt Tour - the world's longest ski circuit

The new challenge for experienced skiers who want to put their skills and stamina to the test: The KitzSkiWelt Tour will connect SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser – Brixental (on numerous occasions awarded the accolade of the world's greenest ski area) with KitzSki, the world's best ski area. With an 88-kilometre descent as the longest variant from Going to Hollersbach/Mittersill - return and an impressive range of slopes, this is the longest ski circuit in the world and an absolute must for every skier. Access on to the KitzSkiWelt Tour is possible at 14 KitzSki and SkiWelt locations (SkiWelt: Brixen im Thale, Ellmau, Going, Hopfgarten, Itter, Scheffau, Söll und Westendorf | KitzSki: Aschau, Kirchberg, Kitzbühel, Jochberg, Pass Thurn und Hollersbach/Mittersill). As you make your way along the KitzSkiWelt Tour, several impressive mountain panoramas open out, namely Wilder Kaiser, Hohe Salve, the Kitzbühel and Tux Alps and Hohe Tauern. There are also numerous photo spots at Hohe Salve, the highest pilgrimage church in Austria with a view of over 70 3,000-metre peaks and a professional photo point with camera at the start of the Streif.

A specially designed website www.skiwelt.at/kitzskiwelttour offers the best route suggestions for the KitzSkiWelt Tour from every SkiWelt and KitzSki access point. Here you can navigate effortlessly through the two ski areas and view them on the interactive ski maps.

If you run out of energy along the KitzSkiWelt Tour, you can always take up the offer of the free ski bus offer to get you home. There are attractive day ticket deals for the KitzSkiWelt Tour, goodies included.
