

SkiWelt experiences on and off the slopes

Feeling mind-bogglingly good in the SkiWelt

The SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser - Brixental is one of the largest, most modern, and most ecological ski regions in the world. 87 modern lifts, 270 kilometres of slopes and over 80 huts bring plenty of variety to the winter day.

Mind-bogglingly large, varied, and full of Tyrolean charm: the Ski World combines the best of winter on its 270 kilometres of slopes - only 20 minutes from the motorway and the border with Bavaria. 87 modern cable-car lanes lead up into the ski mountains between Going and Westendorf. Over 80 rustic, family-run huts provide the typical Tyrolean pit stop for a bite to eat in between.

Slopes for every ski boot size and style

The Ski World offers exactly the right thing for every type of skier: For the beginner blue practice slopes, 22 ski schools with experience and lots of fun ideas for getting started. For families mini and children's clubs with supervision and lots of easy slopes. For sporty skiers carving areas, black slopes with a gradient of up to 80 percent and mind-bogglingly long valley runs. And for adventure skiers incredible freeride areas, fun and snow parks, floodlit slopes, ski movie, racing and speed measuring tracks. www.skiwelt.at

"The best of" on the SkiWelt tour

On the SkiWelt tour skiers and snowboarders get to know one of the largest, most modern, and most ecological ski areas from its most beautiful sides and slopes. Depending on the direction of travel, the SkiWelt tour lies between Ellmau, Going, Scheffau, Brixen im Thale, Söll, Hopfgarten, Itter, Kelchsau and Westendorf with 69 to 84 kilometres of slopes and 34 to 37 cable-car lanes. the route can be planned in such a way that no lift or slope must be used twice. www.skiwelt.at

Mind-bogglingly much fun on the slopes - the KitzSkiWelt tour

For tireless slope-mileage counters, the tour can even be extended: the longest ski circuit in the world extends beyond the SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser – Brixental to the neighbouring ski-resort KitzSki. Between Going am Wilden Kaiser and Hollersbach im Oberpinzgau, you can ski 88 kilometres of slopes and 17,000 meters of altitude in one day, swinging across the Kitzbühel Alps to the Hohe Tauern and back. If you want to break off earlier, you can use the ski bus from any valley location to take you back to the starting point free of charge. skiwelt.at/kitzskiwelttour

Mind-bogglingly eventful – with and without skis

The SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser – Brixental offers unlimited fun on the slopes and panoramic views over 70 three-thousanders – but also a lot of variety: Three fun parks, tempo and ski movies and racetracks help you make the best of the skiing day. Children will be eager to participate in one raven rally, a bewitched children's birthday party or the winter-night witchcraft in the SkiWelt Söll. Countless photo points – for example in Alpenigloo® village in the SkiWelt Brixen, at the pleasure evening in the champagne cable-car of the Hexenwasser cable-car lift or at the highest pilgrimage church in Austria on the Hohen Salve – are worth a stopover. - And every 3.5 km of slopes one of 80 rustic, family-run huts with delicious cottage cuisine. www.skiwelt.at

The SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser – Brixental is one of the largest and most modern ski areas in the world. Its 87 modern lifts, 270 kilometres of slopes, over 80 family-run huts and 9 different entry points are easily accessible. The SkiWelt can also be reached incredibly quickly and easily: only 20 minutes away from the motorway and the border. The SkiWelt has received the award for the most ecological ski area in the world several times because of the countless projects in ecology and sustainability. The entire SkiWelt has been operated for many years with 100% green electricity from Tyrolean hydropower. Unique panoramic views from the Wilder Kaiser and over 70 three-thousand-metre-high mountains extending to the Großglockner as well as a unique variety of slopes and additional experiences are on offer at the SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser - Brixental!
