All Zillertal ski areas with just one ticket

With the Zillertal Superskipass, skiing and snowboarding lovers enjoy boundless freedom and variety on a total of 544 kilometres of pistes. Modern cable cars, 180 in total, take guests quickly and carefree from the valley floor up to 1,600 metres in altitude. That's where the ski areas begin, as Zillertal just gets started where other resorts stop. And the experience on the slopes extends up to 3,250 metres, guaranteeing skiing in Zillertal.

From the family ski area Spieljoch, the off-piste hotspot Hochfügen and the pleasure area Hochzillertal to the extensive Zillertal Arena and Mountopolis (i.e. Penken and Ahorn in Mayrhofen) with the notorious Harakiri run, every ski lover in Zillertal is sure to get their money's worth. Pure variety awaits you in the Ski & Glacier World Zillertal 3000 on the Hintertux Glacier!

The valley of countless possibilities

Do you also like going off-piste? Zillertal' versatility leaves nothing to be desired. Panoramic hikes, cross-country skiing adventures, fun toboggan rides and cosy horse-drawn carriage rides surrounded by magical winter scenery offer a welcome variety. Whether cultural events or centuries-old handicrafts, whether music bands or unique traditional costumes - in Zillertal, living customs always become an experience.

In the Nature Ice Palace on Hintertux Glacier visitors explore a unique world of ice with natural cavities, impressive ice stalactites, frozen waterfalls, and an underground glacial lake. This can even be navigated with a stand-up paddle board or a kayak. The Zillertal wellness areas provide relaxation after an intensive day of skiing. The Erlebnistherme Zillertal offers a range of facilities that are especially tailored to families and sauna fans.

Snowbombing – the perfect ending to a season

Founded in 2000 this festival is an eclectic mix of fun on the slopes, winter pleasure and an unforgettable alpine music experience. The snow bombing event awaits you for a weeklong whirlwind of adrenaline, mountaintop partying, world-class live bands and DJs, luxury hotels, relaxing rooftop hot tubs, learning to ski and snowboard, alpine fondue and ice-cold steins, breath taking panoramas and endless exploring. The pistes are, of course, groomed to perfection and the village awaits the thousands of music and mountain sport fans with eager anticipation.

Culinary delicacies and sporting variety

These include award-winning huts such as Kristallhütte, Schneekarhütte and Wedelhütte, or rustic lifestyle huts such as Wiesenalm and Granatalm. Right next to the piste, Zillertal's toque chefs serve their gourmet menus and in the valley's first purely vegetarian/vegan 3-course restaurant, GuatzEssen in Stumm, you can experience the surprising variety of flavours of a garden. If sustainability is particularly important to, you should look out for the AMA seal of quality or indulge in culinary delights in one of the excellent Tyrolean inns.
