

Sun, Ski & Slopes: Winter in Carinthia and Tirol

It's never too early to think about winter in Austria. Tirol and Carinthia have topped up their game for the upcoming season.

Summer might currently be in full bloom but we wouldn't be Austrians if we didn't think about the upcoming winter months already! Skiing and other winter adventures are back in high demand among British holidaymakers and we can't wait to welcome you on the slopes again.

Check out what Carinthia and Tirol have to offer in the upcoming season and pick your new favourite resort for this winter!

Carinthia: Enjoy the sunny side of winter and ski with Franz Klammer

Carinthia has a whooping 32 top-notch ski resorts, 40 ski schools and more than 800 km (50 mi) of well-prepared pistes suitable for everyone from complete beginner to skiing pro. What's more, Austria's most southern province ensures your holiday will be a sunny one. Carinthia has more than 100 sunshine hours in the winter - do we need to say more?
